

EALING ABBEY LAY PLAINCHANT CHOIR
OPEN REHEARSAL
WEDNESDAY 7 NOVEMBER: 6:30 – 8:00 PM

Are you interested in finding out more about plainchant (Gregorian chant), and discovering how to sing it? It's not nearly as difficult to read or sing as you may think!

If so, you would be most welcome to come to one of our Choir rehearsals, to listen to us rehearsing and learn more about chant and our Choir. We have an open rehearsal in the Bulbeck Room on Wednesday 7 November at 6:30 pm.

The Ealing Abbey Lay Plainchant Choir (EALPC), led by Fr Peter, sings once a month at the 12:00 noon Mass. We also sing at a monthly Mass at a local care home for people suffering from forms of dementia. Members have a range of experience, and we welcome beginners who wish to learn how to sing chant.

Gregorian chant is the ancient, traditional music of the western Church, with roots in the Jewish liturgy at the time of Christ. The Second Vatican Council commended its continued use in the sacred liturgy.

For further information about the rehearsal, contact Annie or Patrick Martin on 020 8991 1081 or e-mail gregorianchantealing@gmail.com
